

100TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Help Cornell Cooperative Extension & Farm Bureau of Livingston County Create a Centennial Cookbook

Cooperative Extension & Farm Bureau of Livingston County are celebrating their 100th anniversary in 2018. The 100th anniversary committee is collecting the best recipes from residents, family, and friends of the Livingston County organizations! Recipes will be compiled into an attractive keepsake cookbook. Participants are also encouraged to provide farm-related history, stories, and/or memories relating to the organizations. We will begin selling our one-of-a-kind Livingston County cookbook around May 2018.

The custom publication will contain well-loved recipes including appetizers, main dishes, desserts, and more*. It will also feature Livingston County history from 1918 through present day.

Recipe template cards can be obtained from the Cornell Cooperative Extension office at 3 Murray Hill Drive, Mt. Morris; online at www.ccelivingstoncounty.org; or from a Farm Bureau member.

Recipes should be submitted to the Livingston County Cooperative Extension office no later than February 28, 2018. Items can also be sent to Livingston@cornell.edu.

Thank you in advance for your support!

*In an effort to provide a wide-variety of recipes, the planning committee is responsible for making the final decision on which recipes are published.
