

Hemlock Fair Building Exhibits 101

Judging Day

Judging Day

- ▶ Youth must be present on Judging Day
- ▶ This year, Judging Day is July 14, 2019
from 3:00-7:30pm
 - ▶ Check with your 4-H Educator for a schedule
- ▶ Judging of all Building Exhibits takes place in the Festival Building

Judging Day

- ▶ What to bring:
 - ▶ Your exhibits, looking their best
 - ▶ Double entry tag for each exhibit and any additional documentation needed
 - ▶ Additional items for your display: tablecloths, nails, tacks, string, etc.

Judging Day

- ▶ When you arrive, you can park near the Festival Building and begin unpacking your exhibits.
- ▶ Please move your vehicle to the parking lot to avoid blocking fair vendors.
- ▶ Judges are set up at tables throughout the building. Each table is labeled as to which Section(s) the judges are evaluating.
- ▶ Visit one judge at a time, but bring all the exhibits that fall under that Section/Class.
- ▶ Bring your exhibit(s), double entry tag(s) and additional documentation.
- ▶ The judge will look over your exhibit and ask you questions about how you created it, what you learned, what you found difficult, etc.
- ▶ The judge will award you a ribbon for your exhibit.

Judging Day

- ▶ After you have an exhibit evaluated, select another exhibit, find the correct judge and have that one evaluated too.
- ▶ Repeat as often as necessary until all your exhibits have been evaluated.
- ▶ Collect all your exhibits, ribbons, and paperwork and head to the 4-H Exhibit Building (not far, but you can drive there if you would like to) to set up your display

